Multi-centre deals by United Vacations

UNITED Vacations is offering a range of value multi-centre holidays combining cities such as Boston, Chicago and New York and self-drive tours well off the beaten track for clients who want to explore the back roads.

The operator offers flights from Heathrow to six US gateway cities and onward to more than 165 destinations, and says it has the best connections and best prices to Hawaii. It also offers free connecting flights to London from eight UK regional airports.

New additions this year include a nine-night Yellowstone & The Black Hills pre-planned self-drive tour exploring Utah, Wyoming and South Dakota from £975 per person. The tour begins in Salt Lake City and continues to Jackson Hole, Grand Teton National Park, Yellowstone National Park, Cody, Shendani, Rapid City, Spearfish Canyon where Dances with Wolves was filmed, Mount Rushmore and the Badlands National Park.

Also new is a Nuggets of the West 12-night pre-planned self-drive tour of California and Nevada. The round-trip itinerary from Los Angeles takes in Las Vegas, the Grand Canyon, Sequoia, Yosemite and a drive along the Pacific Coast Highway with prices from £1,279 per person.

New multi-centre tours include the nine-night Eastern Explorer combining Boston, Chicago and New York from £1,085 and Family Fun which combines Washington DC, Orlando and Chicago, taking the family around the "Obama sights" in Chicago and the US capital, and with time to enjoy the theme parks. The ten-night package costs from £860 per adult and £490 per child.
